

IOP Nuclear Physics Conference

19–21 April 2010

University of Edinburgh, UK

<http://nuc10.iopconfs.org/>

Organised by the IOP Nuclear Physics Group

IOP Nuclear Physics Conference

The IOP Nuclear Physics Conference is held annually and is the foremost gathering of nuclear physicists in the UK. Previous conferences have been held at Birmingham in 2009, Liverpool in 2008 and Surrey in 2007. The conference covers leading research in pure and applied nuclear physics.

A table top exhibition will be held alongside the conference (Monday 19 – Wednesday 21 April) to provide companies in the field and related areas the opportunity to display their products to a specialised audience.

Location

The conference and exhibition are being held at the John McIntyre Conference Centre, situated at Pollock Halls at the University of Edinburgh.
